

COBS Bread Opens in Waterdown First day of sales will be donated to Food With Grace

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Waterdown, ON) March 16, 2018 – Canada’s largest bakery franchise, COBS Bread, is scheduled to open early next Wednesday, March 21ST in Waterdown. All sales from the day will be donated to the Food with Grace foodbank.

This is the first COBS Bread bakery in Guelph, but will be Ontario’s 22nd COBS Bread bakery. The bakery will be owned and operated by local Waterdown resident, Clare Smith. The opening will be attended by Councillor Judi Partridge who will be at the bakery at 11am for the “breaking of the bread.”

COBS Bread also opened last week in Guelph, Ontario with record-breaking opening day sales. Owners of all COBS Bread bakeries are also actively involved in their local communities which is a cornerstone of the COBS Bread brand. It is well-known for its range of traditional and artisan breads, as well as sweet and savoury treats such as scones, croissants and danishes. All products are baked fresh daily on site and unsold product is donated to local charities at the end of the day.

COBS Bread is located at Unit B4 - 94 Dundas Street East and will be open from 7am-8pm Monday to Saturday, and from 7am-6pm on Sundays. COBS Bread For more information, visit the local bakery page at www.cobsbread.com/local-bakery/waterdown.
