

COBS Bread Opens in Leduc

First day of sales will be donated to Leduc & District Food Bank

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Leduc, AB) April 7, 2018 – Canada’s largest bakery franchise, COBS Bread, is scheduled to open early this Wednesday, April 11th in Leduc. All sales from the day will be donated to the Leduc & District Food Bank.

This is the first COBS Bread bakery in Leduc, but will be Alberta’s 36th COBS Bread bakery. The bakery will be owned and operated by local Wayne Kaiser, who is also the owner of COBS Bread in Edmonton’s Brewery district.

COBS Bread recently opened in Fort Saskatchewan in late March with the strongest opening week of any COBS Bread bakery.

Owners of all COBS Bread bakeries are also actively involved in their local communities which is a cornerstone of the COBS Bread brand. It is well-known for its range of traditional and artisan breads, as well as sweet and savoury treats such as scones, croissants and danishes. All products are baked fresh daily on site and unsold product is donated to local charities at the end of the day.

COBS Bread Leduc Common is located at 103-5401 Discovery Way and will be open from 7am-8pm Monday to Friday and 7am- 7pm on the weekend. For more information, visit the local bakery page at www.cobsbread.com/local-bakery/leduc-common.
